

The Electronic Field Trip Series

PRODUCED BY

Colonial Williamsburg[®]

What are Electronic Field Trips?

- Live national television broadcasts that BRING AMERICAN HISTORY ALIVE in your classroom
- Relevant stories of people, places, and events from the past that motivate today's learners
- Broadcasts air at 10–11 AM and 1–2 PM Eastern Time
- Video streaming available
- Broadcast on participating PBS stations and cable channels. For a broadcaster list, go to www.history.org/broadcasters
- Live toll-free call-in, e-mail, and video questions answered by Colonial Williamsburg historians
- Online voting, video previews, and year-long student message boards

What does the price include?

- On-demand 24/7, to use when they fit your curriculum
- Interactive, multidisciplinary student lessons
- Web-based, standards-aligned teacher resources
- Primary sources
- Script for each program
- Online teacher tutorial
- Technical assistance
- Video streaming available
- Taping rights

Why should I subscribe?

- Immerse students in authentic historical content
- Build civics, history, and literacy skills
- Infuse distance learning into the differentiated classroom
- Fill information gaps and enhance background knowledge
- Help students develop communication skills
- Enhance students' ability to gather and synthesize information from a variety of sources

To learn more, visit our Web site at www.history.org/trips, e-mail to EFTSupport@cwf.org,
Call 1-800-761-8331 to subscribe.